Ahimsa is a manufacturer of organic plant products. All Ahimsa products are certified organic. Ahimsa uses vegetable protein from peas, wheat, soybeans and other legumes such as chickpeas and lentils. All Ahimsa products are of plant origin, and therefore, contain vitamins, minerals, fiber, oils and phytonutrients for the proper functioning of our body.

DESCRIPTION

Ahimsa manufactures organic farming products, has been on the market for more than forty years. Ahimsa does not use rapeseed oil in the production of its products, nor does it use soy, canola or corn. Ahimsa only uses sunflower oil and virgin olive oil, which are rich in unsaturated fatty acids and which help to maintain cholesterol levels.
