At Laboratorios Nale, Grupo Lab. Nale, they are committed to health care with natural supplements. The philosophy of Nale laboratories is based on producing high quality products to improve people's health and quality of life.

DESCRIPTION

At Akame from Nale Laboratories they make food supplements designed to improve health and well-being. All its products are made with natural active ingredients, so we find the natural solution to our health problem and thus improve our mood and energy.

Laboratorios Nale has developed a line of diet and nutrition products that respond to the needs and deficiencies of the body. Its formulas are more effective, healthy and natural to combat pathologies and improve the general tone of the body.

Nale's food supplements offer us products with Aloe Vera where its main ingredient is with a very high percentage of concentration, collagen to keep the bone and skin system young and healthy, royal jelly and its derivatives as a source for our defenses and respiratory system, vitamins that will help us complete the daily intake of trace elements and vitamins necessary to feel full of health and vitality.

In the rest and wellness line we find products for relaxation in periods of stress, anxiety or a lot of activity.
