DESCRIPTION

Artigana was born in the nineties. Artigana imports and distributes natural, biological and organic products. Artigana products are of high nutritional and ecological value.

It is a family business that has existed since 1998, when Aldo and Tea, our parents, put a wonderful idea into their heads: to produce Genoese pesto and typical sauces from our Liguria as it was done in the past, with passion and scrupulous skill. .

To this day, they continue to make exquisite sauces, carefully following all the procedures in accordance with world-renowned quality standards.
