

Organic Maca Powder 200 g

EAN: 5412360007493 FABRICANTE: BIOTONA

Aphrodisiac that improves performance and fertility.

DESCRIPTION

Biotona Bio Maca Raw is derived from the roots of Lepidium meyenii, a very resistant plant that grows at high altitudes in the central Andes of Peru, on rocky soils and in extreme climatic conditions. According to local tradition, maca is considered an aphrodisiac that improves performance and fertility. Biotona Maca is obtained from organically grown maca roots, harvested by hand after a growth period of 8 months. The first drying takes place under the sun, the roots are washed and quickly salted before being dried and reduced to powder. Maca maintains body and physical performance thanks to its unique composition that provides various phytonutrients.

Ingredients

Maca powder* (Lepidium meyenii) (100%) from Peru. *organic cultivation.
