Cupper was born in 1984, in England, in the kitchen of a house where its owners were lovers of good tea. They began to sell their teas in herbalists and were in such demand that they had to open a factory, because their kitchen was too small.

DESCRIPTION

None of the Cupper products contain artificial additives. In 2018, it was the first company in the world to use plastic-free, GMO, and unbleached tea bags. In 1994 Cupper became UK Fair Trade.
