Food supplement in soft gelatin capsules based on TRIBUTYRIN (Butyrate Ester / Butyrate as Triglyceride).

DESCRIPTION

What is Butycaps® used for?

Butyric acid has important actions for intestinal health, including nutrition and trophism of intestinal cells, such as promoting a balanced intestinal microbiota.

Tributyryn is a triglyceride containing three molecules of butyric acid. It is a form of administration that guarantees high bioavailability of butyric acid in all sections of the intestine.

BUTYCAPS® capsules are designed to be easy to take, ensuring effective release of butyrate.
