FABRICANTE: FORZA VITALE

Myrrh Food Supplement, promotes the functionality of the oropharyngeal mucosa.

DESCRIPTION

The resin used is obtained by spontaneous sweating or by making incisions in the bark of the trunk and branches, causing it to flow through the resin canals.

Contains essential oil, sesquiterpenes, steroids, carbohydrates, resins with commiphoric and commiphoric acids, furansendesmanolides and lindenestrenes.

It has tonic, antiseptic, antispasmodic and stimulating properties.

Myrrh is found commercially in the form of spherical granules or cinnamon-colored masses.

The mother tincture is often used as a component for mouthwashes (gargles).

Finally, this plant can be useful as an adjuvant in inflammations of the mouth and throat.

Ingredients: Water, alcohol, Myrrh (Commiphora molmol Engl.) resin 20%, honey.
