GHF is General Health Foods Brand owned by Beslan SL, a leading manufacturer in the dietary supplements sector.

DESCRIPTION

GHF has consolidated itself in the market thanks to more than thirty years of experience in its sector, focusing on innovation and continuous improvement of its products. This achievement has been possible thanks to a team of highly trained professionals and sustained investment in technology and structures.

The company is dedicated to developing its own formulas, including packaging and labeling processes. It has facilities that extend over more than 5,000 square meters, including its own laboratory for quality control and support from specialized external laboratories. The ingredients used are rigorously monitored, ensuring their quality through continuous verifications and regular internal audits. These procedures are designed to confirm that products meet the company's exacting quality standards.

In the production of its articles, GHF follows the ISO 9001:2008 standard, also complying with the regulations of the European Union and HACCP standards on food matters.
