Syrup to have a clear voice at your concerts, conferences. It acts directly on the vocal cords.

DESCRIPTION

SINGERS' SYRUP is indicated for tired vocal cords and in cases of aphonia. Erysimum syrup, made according to a centuries-old recipe that was already used by the singers of the Sistine Chapel choir in Rome in the 18th century, acts specifically on the vocal cords. Sisymbrium officinale, better known as erysimum, contains sulphurous compounds that soften the vocal cords and help restore the voice. This syrup is indicated for anyone who uses their voice frequently (singers, actors, teachers, lecturers, lawyers, etc.).
