EAN: 5055148400019    FABRICANTE: LAMBERTS

Food supplement used for digestive problems ranging from mild indigestion and flatulence to nausea and vomiting.

DESCRIPTION

This versatile root has an incredible variety of useful applications. It is native to parts of India and China, as well as Jamaica and other tropical areas.

From ancient India and China to Greece and Rome, ginger was revered as a culinary and medicinal spice. For thousands of years, all over the world, this pungent spice has been popular as a treatment for digestive problems ranging from mild indigestion and flatulence to nausea and vomiting. It has also been used to relieve colds and arthritis.

At LAMBERTS® we use a standardized extract containing the active ingredients of ginger, which is dissolved in sunflower oil and presented in capsules.

This method ensures that the active components, such as gingerols and zingerone, are preserved.

Each capsule contains the equivalent of over 14 grams of fresh ginger rhizome, provided in the form of 120 mg of extract.

Red/brown oval soft capsule.
