EAN: 8429007051556

FABRICANTE: LAVIGOR

Regenhial HBD Booster is an intensive skin protector and repair concentrate that reinforces the skin's natural defense system and contributes to its repair.

DESCRIPTION

Regenhial HBD Booster serves to strengthen the skin's immune system, to stimulate the first line of defense between the skin and the environment, to increase hydration, smooth skin texture and reduce blemishes and redness.

Regenhial HBD Booster is ideal to be applied with microneedling devices such as Dermastick and Dermapunt. Applicable in other medical-aesthetic techniques to introduce active ingredients and complement anti-acne treatments.

What are the active ingredients in Regenhial HBD Booster?

The composition of Regenhial HBD Booster is:

AD-3A: Skin protector and re-epithelializer.

Pure and biological hyaluronic acid: moisturizing, repairing and soothing.

How to use Regenhial HBD Booster?

Regenhial HBD Booster is applied in the last passes of the microneedling device over the area being treated after having worked the skin with regenhial Gel /GF Regenhial Concentrate.

In other medical-aesthetic techniques, to introduce active ingredients and in the treatment of acne-prone skin, it is applied evenly to the skin.

As a product for home use, apply twice a day, prior to the daily care anti-aging treatment.
