DESCRIPTION

What is Meder-Flu from Mederi Nut used for?

Vitamin C and vitamin A contribute to the normal functioning of the immune system.

The Sun Mushroom (Agaricus blazeii murill) helps defenses naturally. It is rich in beta-glucans that contribute to a normal immune response.

Drosera rotundifolia helps the normal function of the respiratory tract and the maintenance of bronchial health. Maintains optimal immune balance in the respiratory tract. In addition, it has a calming effect in case of irritation of the throat, pharynx and vocal cords.

Elderberry (Sambucus nigra L.) helps support the immune system.

Oregano (Origanum vulgare) promotes the health of the respiratory organs. Contains herbs with properties that reduce bronchial inflammation and improve immunity.

Scots Pine (Pinus sylvestris) facilitates breathing. It decongests the throat and blocked respiratory tract and helps clear the nose and breathe more freely.

Eucalyptus (Eucalyptus globulus) provides relief and calming effect in case of throat and pharynx irritation.

Star Anise (Illicium verum) soothes the respiratory tract. Offers support and calming effect in case of tickling and scratchy throat. In addition, it supports the immune system by contributing to the body's natural defenses.
