FABRICANTE: NATURBITE

L-arginine naturbite is an essential amino acid. L-arginine naturbite stimulates immune function, lowers cholesterol, as well as stimulates the release of growth hormone.

DESCRIPTION

L-arginine naturbite is a food supplement, specifically, l-arginine is an essential amino acid and can stimulate immune function by increasing the number of leukocytes. L-arginine naturbite is involved in the synthesis of creatine, polyamines and in DNA. It can lower cholesterol to improve the capacity of the circulatory system, as well as stimulate the release of growth hormone (somatropin), reduce body fat levels and facilitate the recovery of athletes due to the effects it has of removing ammonia (muscle residue resulting from anaerobic exercise) of the muscles and convert it into urea that is excreted in the urine. Arginine is found in the vast majority of sea products, fish, shellfish, crustaceans, etc.
