DESCRIPTION

What is Lovenergy Naturlider and what is it used for?

Lovenergy Naturlider is a food component with aphrodisiac properties due to its content in Tribulus (Tribulus terrestris), Cinnamon (Cinamomum zeylanicum), Damiana (Turnera diffusa) and Maca.

It is stimulating and invigorating, its mild stimulating effect gives a feeling of well-being thanks to its content in Tribulus, Damiana, Rodiola and Sensoril® (Ashawandha).

It is also an adaptogen because it normalizes body functions and strengthens systems compromised by stress, thanks to its Sensoril® (Ashawandha), Rhodiola and Ginseng content. Naturlider Lovenergy helps in fertility and reproduction: it increases fertility in men and women thanks to its content in Tribulus, Ginkgo, Maca and zinc.

Regulates hormonal activity as it helps in sexual dysfunction in both men and women thanks to Sensoril® that helps in the balance of the hormonal systems of the body, to the Ginger that increases the production of Testosterone, to the vitamin

B6 that helps regulate hormonal activity and zinc that contributes to the maintenance of normal testosterone levels.

Increases physical and mental resistance: thanks to L-Arginine, Cinnamon, Damiana, Maca and vitamin B6.
