EAN: 8424644007577 FABRICANTE: NUTRISPORT

NutriSport Energy bars have been enriched with magnesium, which helps reduce tiredness and fatigue, and with two other electrolytes, sodium and potassium, which contribute to the proper functioning of our muscles and delay fatigue during physical activity. Canela Roll.

DESCRIPTION

On the other hand, they have been re-formulated to achieve the best proportion of carbohydrates for rapid and sustained assimilation so that you have energy in the short, medium and long term during your training or competition. To do this, cyclodextrin ((Cluster Dextrin®) and Isomaltulose (Palatinose TM) have been incorporated, in addition to other energy sources such as maltodextrin and MCT (medium chain triglycerides).
