DESCRIPTION

What is Pranarom Neutral Massage Oil used for?

The massage oil, which contains a high concentration of essential fatty acids, is produced from a blend of three vegetable oils that have been selected for their nourishing and skin-soothing properties. These oils are rosehip, apricot nut, and sunflower. The result is smooth and radiant skin when using this product.

The most outstanding feature of the massage oil is that it allows you to easily create a personalized synergy of essential oils, which will be adapted to the specific needs of each individual in terms of well-being, skin care and general health.

In addition, the fluid and sliding texture of this oil makes it perfect for body massage on all skin types, without concerns of possible allergic reactions and without having a noticeable odor.
