Raab Organic Spermidine Capsules, 100 capsules of 600 mg each. Food supplement made from organic wheat germ powder with a standardized content of 1 mg of spermidine per daily serving.

DESCRIPTION

Capsules with 100% spermidine powder made with organic wheat germ
Spermidine content of 1 mg per daily dose.
No additives, no genetic engineering, vegan.
Made in Germany

Description:

Raab Organic Spermidine Capsules only contain high-quality organic wheat germ powder, which naturally contains spermidine. Only the valuable germ of the wheat grain is used for the powder, which only constitutes a small part of the mature grain. The germ is carefully separated from the endosperm, then deoiled and finely ground. This concentrates the spermidine it contains.

This container contains 25 servings.
