Garcinia Complex by Robis is a highly effective dietary supplement for weight loss. This supplement combines the benefits of Garcinia cambogia, which has satiating and anti-fat properties, with the antioxidant and diuretic qualities of green tea and horsetail.

DESCRIPTION

What is Garcinia Complex by Robis and what is it for?

It is an excellent food supplement to lose weight in a healthy way. Garcinia is one of its main components and works as a natural satiator, which means that it reduces appetite and contributes to weight loss. In addition, it speeds up metabolism and lowers triglyceride and cholesterol levels.

Another benefit of this supplement is its antioxidant and diuretic capacity, thanks to the presence of green tea and horsetail. This means that it protects the body's cells against premature aging and helps eliminate excess fluid from the body.

What is the dosage of Robis Garcinia Complex?

You should take three capsules a day with a sufficient amount of water, two capsules before lunch and one capsule before dinner.
