EAN: 8545457120007

FABRICANTE: V.BYOTICS

Food supplement based on standardized Astragalus extract indicated to reduce and shorten the duration of the common cold.

DESCRIPTION

What is Astragalus from V.Byotics and what is it used for?

Standardized root extract with a high polysaccharide content. Astragalus is considered a powerful stimulant of the immune system, developing resistance to infections. Published studies show that astragalus reduces the incidence and shortens the duration of the common cold and upper respiratory tract infections.

Astragalus is an adaptogenic and immunostimulant plant, whose effects are interrelated; it improves tolerance to stress, increases endurance during exercise, increases tissue oxygenation and the presence of triterpenes and saponins that increase the adrenal response in situations of physical or mental exhaustion.
