Ginkgo biloba is a unique tree in the world. Used for centuries in traditional Chinese, Japanese and Indian medicine, it has shown enormous potential, especially in conditions associated with aging. In addition, it improves blood flow and is considered a wonderful antioxidant. The leaf of this species has vasoregulatory activity (arterial vasodilator, venous vasoconstrictor and capillary resistance enhancer, increased blood flow), antiplatelet; increases tolerance to anoxia (increased glucose and oxygen uptake and decreased oxygen requirements at the brain level); neuroprotective and antioxidant (the flavonoids and terpenes it contains capture free radicals in the body and inhibit the generation of reactive oxygen species)¹.

Vitobest® uses vegetable capsules (VegeCaps) suitable for vegan diets for this supplement.
