How should massage oil for stretch marks be used?

After showering or bathing, apply a small amount of oil to damp skin and gently massage until fully absorbed. For the gut, make circular movements with your hands. For the breasts, make circular movements from the front to the sides, avoiding the nipple area. For the buttocks, use your fists to make circular movements from the bottom up. Use the oil twice a day, in the morning and at night, from the beginning of the pregnancy until the last month. During the last month, use it three times a day as this is when the skin is subjected to the greatest effort. After childbirth, use the oil at least once a day and for six weeks after the end of lactation. If you are not breastfeeding, you can use the oil after 6 to 8 weeks after delivery.
