How should the Purifying Cleansing Gel be used?

For a deep and effective cleansing of the skin, it is recommended to use this product in the following way: with damp skin, take a small amount of gel in the palm of your hands and gently apply all over the face, neck and décolleté, avoiding the eye contour. Next, massage carefully with circular movements, sliding your hands from the inside of the face to the outside, which will promote deep cleansing of the pores and reduce excess sebum. Finally, rinse very well with lukewarm water. It is important that you cleanse your face with this product twice a day, morning and night, for best results.
