The home of AURUM COSMETIC is located in the beautiful Ultzama Valley in Navarra, surrounded by a distinctive humid oak forest. His company is the fruit of an exhaustive search and quality philosophy that began with the YIPSOPHILIA brand.

DESCRIPTION

In the laboratory, excellence is the norm and special attention is paid to each step of the production process, ensuring the complete effectiveness of its product lines.

They strive to maintain an artisanal approach to their work and avoid mass manufacturing.

They make sure that their production is rigorously supervised.

What guarantees the effectiveness of your cosmetic products?

Their products are pure and only use active ingredients that are beneficial to the skin in each of them.

His job is to get the best out of plants with cosmetic properties to maintain skin health.

His team is made up of individuals who are passionate about transforming their daily work into an art form.

The CPAEN, or Council for Organic Agricultural Production of Navarra, is in charge of granting the organic quality seal to its laboratory and to all the ingredients of vegetable origin in its cosmetic products.

The plants used in the Yipsophilia brand have proven over time to be beneficial for the skin.

Yipsophilia product lines provide nourishment to the skin without overloading it with extraneous ingredients that can upset its natural balance.

Each product offers natural elements compatible with the skin, including essential micro and macro nutrients such as carbohydrates, lipids, proteins, vitamins, antioxidants, trace elements and specific active ingredients.
