Zara is the best-known licorice brand on the market, it is shaped like a bar, they make it natural, without sugar. The raw material to make licorice is the root of the plant that is imported from Aragon, Navarra, Toledo. The licorice plant is grown in humid places.

DESCRIPTION

Zara's licorice dates back to 1924, when a French company settled in Zaragoza, due to the fact that Aragon was rich in licorice plant. IN 1960 the company passed into the hands of an employee by the name of Fire sl, who continues to be its manufacturer to this day. The main activity of Fire is the elaboration of licorice blocks, from the root of the plant, which are transformed into bars and pills after a long elaboration.
